People and Places

Fifth District Supervisor Steve Lavagnino works to significantly reduce the size of county government, close its budget shortfalls, and balance the budget. Steve is also the driving force behind Santa Barbara County's annual Veterans Stand Down event aimed at providing homeless and near homeless veterans all the services they need to reconnect to the community.

Stephanie Grogan is vice president of philanthropy for the Marian Regional Medical Center Foundation. Ms. Grogan holds a bachelor degree in psychology from Santa Clara University. She has been active in volunteer service for a variety of community organizations, including serving as chairman of the Santa Maria Valley Chamber of Commerce. She is an alumnus of Leadership Santa Maria Valley, and has been named Volunteer of the Year by the American Cancer Society.

Marian Regional Medical Center Santa Maria is a Judeo-Christian healthcare ministry founded by the Sisters of St. Francis in 1940. Rooted in Dignity Health's mission, vision and values, Marian Regional Medical Center is dedicated to delivering community benefit operating the hospital as a community resource.

Juice Plus+ products help people in the United States and more than 20 other countries provide better nutrition for themselves and their children. Through the Juice Plus+ Children's Foundation and the Juice Plus+ Children's Health Study, the Juice Plus+ community helps even more children and families across the globe enjoy the benefits of a healthier lifestyle.

Good Samaritan Shelter provides the community with many programs addressing homelessness as well as alcohol and substance abuse. Good Samaritan Shelter provides shelter, affordable housing, clean & sober living, drug & alcohol treatment, outreach and education within the local community. By partnering with other local supportive service agencies, they provide the highest level of care to those who need it most.

VTC Enterprises offers a wide range of services to people with disabilities who desire training or assistance in areas related to employment and daily living. Activities take place at VTC locations, and in various community settings and businesses. Services are individualized as each person helps design their own plan and goals, and great effort is put into understanding the preferences of those who are non-verbal or have difficulty communicating.

Transitions-Mental Health Association (TMHA) is a nonprofit organization dedicated to eliminating stigma and promoting recovery and wellness for people with mental illness through work, housing, community and family support services. Operating 30 programs at over 35 locations in San Luis Obispo and North Santa Barbara counties, the emphasis of Transitions' innovative services is to teach vital independent living skills and help build a framework for community re-entry through personal empowerment and hands on experience.
